

Boils Biliousness Malaria Constipation

Are You Troubled?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Perhaps this case may be similar to yours

J. Wesley Tilly of (Box 672), Selma, Cal., writes:
Gentlemen: "It gives me much pleasure to be able to send you a testimonial, if by its reaching some suffering person medicine will do much for him as they have for me. At the age of fourteen I was troubled with a great deal of malaria and biliousness, accompanied by the worst sort of large boils. I was persecuted by my parents, who have always been strong believers in Dr. Pierce's remedies. To try the Golden Medical Discovery, I took one bottle and the boils all disappeared, but I did not stop at one bottle, I took three more and the malaria all left me and I have had no more boils to this day, thanks to the Golden Medical Discovery for my relief."

"Following an operation for appendicitis two years ago I was made very much with constipation and I have been troubled with the trouble since and have had one in consequence of the trouble, thanks again for the 'Boils' and for the advice I have obtained from 'The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser.' Send only 3 cents for this 100 page book."

for over forty years has been lending its aid to just such cases as this. In our possession we have thousands of testimonials of like character.

Perhaps you are skeptical, but isn't it worth at least a trial in view of such strong testimony? Isn't it reasonable to suppose that if it has done so much for others it can do as much for you?

Your druggist will supply you in liquid or tablet form, or you can send for one-cent stamps for a trial box. Address

NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST FROM THE WORLD AT LARGE.

THURSDAY.

Germany, in pushing its advance through Belgium, has met with strong opposition around Liege, where the Belgian forces, according to official advice reaching Brussels, have repulsed the German army of the Meuse under Gen. Von Emmich. The Germans are reported to have lost several thousand in killed and wounded. Field Marshal Kitchener has been appointed Secretary of State for War in the British Cabinet, and will have under his direction the military campaign against Germany. The French troops have joined the Belgians in opposing the progress of Germany through Belgium, and it is reported that possibly Great Britain may send reinforcements.

The President of the United States has proffered his services as mediator to the European nations at war.

The German Ambassador will leave England Thursday by dispatch boat. Both at St. Petersburg and Berlin the German and Russian embassies, respectively, have been attacked by mobs.

The capture of a number of German steamers by the British is reported, and the British cruiser Amphion has sunk the Hamburg-American Line steamer Koenigsluise.

Russian frontier patrols have penetrated ten miles into Germany. Travelers returning from the North Sea bring word that no hostile warships were to be seen.

Germany has issued an ultimatum to Italy a party to the Triple Alliance which has declared neutrality.

Measures for the relief of the 100,000 Americans aboard have been perfected. President Wilson yesterday signed the bill appropriating $2,500,000 in gold to be sent abroad. The cruiser Tennessee will leave with this amount and $5,000,000 more sent by bankers to-night. Plans are now being perfected for chartering a fleet of neutral vessels to bring Americans home.

The financial tone of this country was more reassuring yesterday, and all signs were bright. The biggest problem was to take care of the foreign-owned stock brought over by the Olympic, but the New York bankers combined to handle them.

The Senate passed the Newlands bill for the creation of a Federal Trade Commission of five members, which will have extended authority over corporations. The bill differs radically from that adopted by the House, which it is believed, will refuse to accept it and will demand a conference.

Senator W. J. Stone was renominated by the Missouri Democrats with a plurality of over 10,000 votes.

FRIDAY.

Out of London comes the report that the British fleet has engaged the German fleet in battle on the high seas. The British admiralty refuses information as to whether a naval engagement is in progress, but the British warships, which put out several days ago, have been searching for the Germans in the North Sea. The British cruiser Amphion has been sunk by contact with a mine, with a loss of more than a hundred men.

Emperor William, of Germany, in an order to the army and navy, calls upon all Germans capable of bearing arms, to fight for the fatherland.

In Belgium, Germans and Belgians are fighting around Liege, where upwards of 100,000 men are engaged. According to official reports from Brussels, the two days' fighting has cost the Germans thousands of men. The Belgians are also believed to have lost heavily. As yet there have been no reports from the German sources as to the outcome of the German attacks.

Austria-Hungary has declared war on Russia, and the Russian Ambassador at Vienna has been given his passports.

The British Prime Minister in the House of Commons asked for an additional war appropriation of $500,000,000 and an army increase of 500,000 men, both of which requests were granted. At the same time the Government declared a moratorium in London for a month, with certain exemptions.

Russian cavalry, endeavoring to enter East Prussia, have been driven back by the German frontier guards. A Tien Tsin dispatch says the Russian cruiser Emden, in an engagement off Weihaiwei, have both been sunk.

Rapid progress was made yesterday toward the relief of Americans in Europe. President Wilson issued an order constituting a Board of Relief made up of Cabinet members. All arrangements have been made to send money to relieve United States citizens abroad.

Bids will soon be received for the services of 650 convicts at the Frankfort Reformatory.

The 1915 convention of the Knights of Columbus will be held in Seattle.

SATURDAY.

The siege of Liege is the outstanding feature of the European war. The latest dispatches received by way of London in the form of official dispatches, say that Liege still holds out against the attacks of the German army of the Meuse.

The Germans have been granted a twenty-four hour armistice to bury their dead.

On the authority of the Belgian War Ministry the German casualties in the battle around Liege number 25,000, according to their own admission. An official statement issued from Berlin described the attempt on the Liege fortress as unsuccessful, and the assault of the Germans "a unique act of heroism," and added that it will have not the slightest influence on the large operations of the German army.

German diplomats have been using their utmost efforts to win Italy to the German side, but without success. The Italian Ambassador at London said Italy had declared her neutrality and would adhere to it.

Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, denied that there has been an engagement between the German and British fleets in the North Sea.

With a loan fund of $75,000, secured by prominent Americans to relieve the distress of their compatriots in London, the situation there is much better. In France arrangements are being perfected to send Americans home. Cablegrams are being received in Kentucky from friends and relatives touring Europe. All are safe.

Bankers and exporters have been called to meet at a conference in Washington next week, when plans will be discussed for moving the grain and cotton crops abroad. It is thought that some plan to provide shipping will be evolved. The South American trade field probably will be thoroughly invaded during the present outbreak in Europe.

Carranza's organ in Mexico City called upon the people to make a demonstration for peace to-day. The Subsecretary of the Interior has warned the citizens against any such display, and has threatened to put down the movement with troops if necessary.

SUNDAY.

It was reported last night in Berlin that Liege has fallen. An official report from Paris of the fighting around Liege on August 3, and 5 says that the German loss was 5,000 killed and twenty-four guns captured. The invading army, the report stated, consisted of 120,000 men, opposed by 40,000 Belgians. The first French victory of the war was the capture of the village of Alstreb, in Alsace, near the entry of the French troops into Muelhausen, a strongly-fortified city, the second in importance in Alsace-Lorraine. Private cable advices state that a flotilla of German torpedo boats has attacked British warship in Humber, the waterway to Hull, sinking four of them.

That foreign commerce cannot be cut off long was the opinion expressed yesterday by Secretary Redfield in an optimistic statement in which he told the business men of this country not to worry.

Some modification in the strict neutrality laws already issued were made yesterday and it is probable that ships bearing reservists as individuals will be allowed to sail. A protest against censorship of the German wire less when the cables of French and England were not bothered, was registered.

The nation, in the person of official Washington, will attend the funeral of Mrs. Wilson Monday afternoon, to be held in the East Room of the White House. The House and Senate, as well as all departments, will be closed all day. The burial will be at Rome, Ga.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the woman's constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.
